

Keith Richards, Runnin' Too Deep

We scorch the earth
For all it&#039;s worth
Last night
You in ecstasy
Now you don&#039;t remember me

It&#039;s runnin&#039; too deep
It&#039;s runnin&#039; too deep for me

The sirens and the curfews
Through the night
Everybody&#039;s locked up tight
What&#039;s going on
It&#039;s been dark for much too long

It&#039;s runnin&#039; too deep
Runnin&#039; too deep
Runnin&#039; too deep for me

If heaven loses face
What will take its place

We&#039;ve torn the treasure from the land
Watched it turn to ashes in our hands
