Keith Urban, I Told You So

You said you needed your space I wasn't where you wanted to be I didn't stand in your way I only want you to be happy And so how surprised am I to see you here tonight

Well, oh, can't you see that for worse or for better We're better together Please, just come back home And don't say that you're sorry And I won't say I told you so

Sometimes in our lives We get to where we wander if The long road that we're on Is heading in the same direction When it comes to you and me We're right where I know we should be

Well, oh, can't you see that for worse or for better We're better together Please, just come back home And don't say that you're sorry And I won't say I told you so

Sometimes it's like we're deep in nothing but love And the slightest thing can grow so foolishly Remind me, please

Oh, can't you see that for worse or for better We're better together Please, just come back home And don't say that you're sorry You don't gotta say you're sorry baby

Oh, can't you see that for worse or for better we're better together Please, just come back home And don't say that you're sorry

And I won't say I told you so But I told you so Should have known better Than to leave me, baby Should have known better Than to leave me, darling
