

Keith Urban, One Too Many (ft. Pink)

I don't remember much about last night
Woke up on a couch sun-rise
Saw the living room through these bloodshot eyes of my mine
Cold sober
You didn't like that I come home late

4 am but it's a Friday baby
And I've been working hard
Can't you give me some space
Steady shoutin'
Oh my God

I go out with some new friends
But it just makes me miss you more
I spent all my money
Drinking on my won
In this bar just sat here
Staring at my phone
And I keep second guessing
Where did I go wrong
I know I'm proud
But I've had one too many
Come take me home
