Keith Whitley, Birmingham Turnaround

The Birmingham Turnaround (Keith Whitley)

Caught a plane to Birmingham Leaving you was my plan Then head on south by any means Thought I might blend in round New Orleans

But when the plane got off the ground I saw your face in a cloud Saw your tears out on the wing Don't guess my heart was free to leave

Birmingham would have to wait for a little later date And I said I'd see you later New Orleans 'Cause I knew my rambling ways had seen their better days And suddenly I had a change in dreams

Caught a plane from Birmingham
Back in your arms is where I am
At times we laugh and talk about
The day I did the Birmingham turnaround

Birmingham would have to wait for a little later date And I said I'd see you later New Orleans 'Cause I knew my rambling ways had seen their better days And suddenly I had a change in dreams

Caught a plane from Birmingham
Back in your arms is where I am
At times we laugh and talk about
The day I did the Birmingham turnaround

And now we laugh and talk about The day I did the Birmingham turnaround
