

Kele, Everything You Wanted

I see the bags in the empty hallway
I can tell something has changed.
I see the pain written over the face
And I know I pushed you too far.
if you want,
too leave me,
you must know,
one thing.

I could have given you everything you wanted
everything you needed /x4

There are times when I lost my mind
I am told I'm only halfway
But you were there
In my thoughts,
in my head
In my heart
above the left side
I know the time for us has past, but you must know one thing

I could have given you everything you wanted
everything you needed /x4

and I say, dale dale I'm a deero finding it hard too breathe /x4

I could have given you everything you wanted
everything you needed /x4
