

Kelis, Roller-Rink

Hey yo, while I dream about four to five hundred men,
Hundred gram bracelets, the diamonds in my ear only cost hundreds of face,

They gon' say shit, me 'n you, fkin in the window of my spaceship, I like fk, so all the bitches that they would only fk my life up, the flyest couple, killin' them selves deliverin' our first born, on a Na

Have you ever thought there might be someting out there,
Far out, Way out,
What ye think those movies are insinuating,
Look out, Look out,
Do you think you'd even know one if you saw one,
Watch out, (watch out),
Watch out, (watch out),
If you think the government just don't know nothin',
Watch out,
Watch out,

The roller rink, the roller rink,
Just skate away you'll need to think,
No , no Gucci links,
No need for shrinks, just roller rink,
The roller rink just skate away you'll need to think,
No , no Gucci links,

No need for a shrink.....

If you see whats coming our way then get ready,
Watch out, watch out,
Ain't gonna be no and put your hands up,
Look out, look out,
Better hide your baby's
Be right, look out,
If you think the government just don't know nothin',
Better watch out,
Watch out,
The roller rink, the roller rink,
Just skate away you'll need to think,
No no Gucci links,
No need for shrinks, just roller rink,
The roller rink, the roller rink,
Just skate away you'll need to think,
No no Gucci links,
No need for a shrink, (x2)

Ah yo, a yo, the whole world gets high, when they hear this Neptune talk
