

Kelli Ali, Voyeur

got my hands in my pockets and a head for romance there's a pill on my tongue you wanna dance?

you wanna dance?

come on brother, I know you're dying to lose your senses set your soul free you're the ether, man I ain't lying it's so expensive, all this beauty yeah alright

see the moon in my eye so you think I'm a spy but I'm just a voyeur you wanna fly?

come on sister, you should be flying to lose your senses
set your soul free

nothin' goes deeper than my love
nothin' goes deeper baby

come on brother, I know you're dying to lose your senses
set your soul free

set your soul free
