

Kelly Campbell, Break Away

chorus 1x:

Today im away; away from home lost in a world thats not my own thinking about tomorrow and what it will bring am i alone of will my fait ring
Am i missing out on everything all the joys that life shall bring what should i do i feel so confused

I think i know what im missing im missing You

You put the joys in my life the smile on my face, but now its just sadness in my eyes.

chorus:
why'd ya have to do it i thought i made ur life great but i guess i just made you hate everything is going down the dain including MY PAIN

i have to get over it i hvae to run away you made my life different but now its back to the same

chorus 2x:
have to think about tomorrow and what it will bring hoping that my fait will ring i will live, i wont die, adn time wont pass me by now that im not missing out on everything , none of the joys that life shall bring im living my life without you happy as can be i feel so free nothing could be better, but one thing if i had a guy who would treat me right

chorus 1x

chorus 2x

i feel great im not in doubt im jsut happy that is over and i never have to see u AGAIN!
