

Kelly Clarkson, I Don't Think About You when you're lost in the moment you can't see where you going I didn't know who I could trust so I put all my faith in us you tore me to pieces turned my strength into weakness I didn't want it all to fall apart so I decide just to play the part but honestly I do it all again putting up with all the bullshit he made me strong enough to do this It used to bother me thought I could never leave?

after all the I've been through
no, no, no
I don't think about you weighing down on me
I lost my sanity
and now that we are through
no, no, no
I don't think about you I feel freedom where I stand now and I feel proud of who I am now

I learned a lot along the way I love the woman that I become I was patient but not anymore he's back in my hands and you swore I'll never do it but it's your turn to face the music
it used to bother me
thought I could never leave?

no, no, no
I don't think about you
weighing down on me
and now that we are through
no, no, no
I don't think about you
I feel freedom where I stand now
