

Kelly Clarkson, My Last Broken Heart

Well I've been down to my last dime

Down to my last dance

Down to the last time

Down to my last chance

Well I've been down to nothing, left at all a time or two

This time I think I'm down to something, I can't afford to lose

Chorus:

I think I'm down to my last broken heart

I think I'm falling in love with you

I'm just afraid to start

But until I know for sure our love won't fall apart

Cause I think I'm down to my last broken heart

Well I can feel the spark of love and it's a sweet dream

But will there be enough to keep on burning

Well I've felt the flame of love before

And I watched it burning out

This time I wanna know for sure, without a doubt

Repeat chorus
