

Kelly Clarkson, Ready

Frozen forgetful again

The part where I lose my head the scene where I'm supposed to speak but instead

I sit and listen again, I'm stuck with these cards I guess

Leaping from this cliff in my thoughts

I fly like the stones in my heart

Drowning in doubt for what reason

I sit so patiently drenched in all of the shit I can't escape

I'm ready now oh I'm ready now

Oh I'm ready now come get me

Fearless with cape in hand

Conquer what I need two to mend

Little girls get so broken

But I sit so patiently drenched in all of the shit

I can't see no escape

I'm ready now oh I'm ready now

Oh I'm ready now come get me
