

Kelly Clarkson, Someday (I Will Find You)

ooh ooh yeahhh hit it boy don't think for a second that I forgot about you cause i didn't. but after I woke up and you were gone and I didn't understand why. Was it something I said? Was it something I did? Ohh I need to know but boy just so you know

(Chours)
Someday I will find you and ask you why you left me broken hearted but boy oh boy don't you that someday oh someday
I will find you yehhh.

Boy I have been searching everywhere for you but I can't seem to find you anywhere its like you didn't exist but to me and I will do anything to find you

(Chours)
Someday I will find you
and ask you why you left me
broken hearted but boy oh boy
don't you that someday oh someday
I will find you yehhh.

Boy its like you where a dream like everything that happened between us didn't happen but I know that in my heart oh in my heart that we will be together forever cause

(2nd Chours)
Cause I found you and now my broken heart is mended and we can go on living with each other cause that someday was today yeahhhhhh ohhhhh yeahhh someday was today

(Chours)
Someday I will find you
and ask you why you left me
broken hearted but boy oh boy
don't you that someday oh someday
I will find you yehhh.

(2nd Chours)
Cause I found you and
and we can go on living with each other cause that someday was today yeahhhhhh
ohhhhh yeahhh someday was today

Boy oh boy that someday is today....

I found you.
