

Kelly Family, I'll Be There

Should the sky just turn to black
And all birds die and fall
When the ghosts go marching down the street
Marching through you walls

CHORUS:

I'll be there for you
With you, my friend
I'll be there for you
With you, my friend

Hear my cry, hear my cry

Should a flower be stoned to death
And love is not around
When you're hungered and you tongue is dry
But your bread is filled with worms

CHORUS

Hear my cry, hear my cry
Hear my cry, hear my cry

Should the stars decide not to shine
And the world is cold as ice
Whe babies only crie

Here my cry, here my cry
