

Kelly Groucutt, You've Been Telling Lies

Have I been wasting my time on you?
I only wanted you to want me
I only wanted you to stay in my arms
Save it all for me

So the saying goes
When your heart's on fire the smoke may blind you
While everyone could see the truth
I still believed in you
I don't believe you
No, No, No

You've been telling lies and I don't know why
You've been seen around with another guy
I just don't understand why
(You were too in love to see)
But you've been telling lies to me

I've been staying home, you've been having fun
Someone told me you've found another one
How long has it been going on
(You were too in love to see)
You've been telling lies to me

Everything I did, I did for you
Sooner or later
You're gonna want me, need me
You've been telling lies and I don't know why

You've been seen around with another guy
I just don't understand why
(You were too in love to see)
But you've been telling lies to me
(You silly fool, You silly fool)
You've been telling lies to me
(You silly fool, You silly fool)
You've been telling lies to me
(You silly fool, You silly fool)
You've been telling lies to me
(You silly fool, You silly fool)
You've been telling lies to me
(You silly fool, You silly fool)
You've been telling lies to me [fade out]
