

Kelly Joe Phelps, I've Been Converted

I've Been Converted□
(traditional)

I know I've been converted
Do you?
I know I've been converted
Do you?

You've got a noose
And you'll make me change
I'm not afraid to call my savior's name
And I know why
I've been converted
Do you?

Now when I was a sinner
I didn't know how to pray
Yeah my words didn't seem to fill me
Didn't know the words to say
Then a voice came from Heaven and said
Said I will show you the way

I know I've been converted
Do you?
I know I've been converted
Do you?

My mother, Oh my mother
Yeah she taught me how to pray
I know my mother praying
Yeah she taught me how to pray
And if I don't pray my soul away
Ain't gonna be nobody's fault but mine

I know I've been converted
I know I've been converted
I know I've been converted
I know now
Do you?

I know I've been converted
I know I've been converted
I know I've been converted
Do You?

I took my feet off my red clay
Left me standing right on my way

I've been converted
I know I've been converted
I know I've been converted
Do you?
