

Kelly Joe Phelps, That's Alright

That's alright, that's alright...
My soul gonna sit up in the kingdom, that's alright

Some say Peter , some say Paul
But one God made us all
and my soul gonna sit up in the kingdom, that's alright

That's alright, that's alright...
My soul gonna sit up in the kingdom, that's alright

You can rebuke me, throw me around, but that's alright
I'm going to the holy town
and my soul gonna sit up in the kingdom, that's alright

I went down to the valley to pray
My soul got happy and I stay all day
And my soul gonna sit up in the kingdom, that's alright

That's alright, that's alright...
