

Kelly Karter, Devil On My Shoulder

I swore I'd never dance with you again
Keep safe from the devil on my shoulder
But you know me so well
And you drag me to Hell
I can't keep safe from the devil on my
Keep safe from the devil on my
Close my eyes, I'm seeing red
Spinning dizzy, on the edge
Close together, far apart
Looks like Heaven in the dark
Arms surround me like a cavern
Walls are bending, closing in
Breathing deeply, feel your heart
Beats like Heaven in the dark
I swore I'd never dance with you again
Keep safe from the devil on my shoulder
But you know me so well
And you drag me to Hell
I can't keep safe from the devil on my
Keep safe from the devil on my shoulder
Open eyes, can't feel my face
All alone in outer space
Stars rise up from floor to ceiling
Sun goes down, chase the feeling
Every time I think I'm free, you're calling me
Your love pulling me right back down
Can't believe that I keep coming back
But you make me feel so good
I swore I'd never dance with you again
Keep safe from the devil on my shoulder
But you know me so well
And you drag me to Hell
I can't keep safe from the devil on my
Keep safe from the devil on my shoulder
My shoulder
Why can't I
Keep safe from the devil on my
Keep safe from the devil on my shoulder?
Every time I think I'm free, you're calling me
Your love pulling me right back down
Every time I think I'm free, you're calling me
Your love pulling me right back down
Every time I think I'm free, you're calling me
Your love pulling me right back down
Every time I think I'm free, you're calling me
