Kelly Price, As We Lay

Whoa, it's morning And we slept the night away It happened Now we can't turn back the hands of time, no, no

Yes we've stolen this moment We forgot to face one simple fact We both belong to someone else As we slept the night away

It's morning Sunlight shines across your sleeping face, oh A new day Brings reality and we both go our separate ways

What a lovely night we had yeah, yeah As we shared each other's love We forgot about all the pain we caused As we slept the night away

As we lay We forgot about tomorrow As we lay Ooh hey, hey

As we lay Didn't think about The price we'd have to pay No, no, no

It's morning And now it's time for us to say goodbye Goodbye baby You're leaving me I know you've got to hurry home to face your wife, wife

I would never want to hurt her, no, no, no She would never understand You belong to me for just one night As we slept the night away

Ooh oh, whoa

I would never, never want to hurt her, no, no, no She would never understand You belong to me for just one night As we slept the night away

As we lay We forgot about tomorrow As we lay Ooh hey, hey

As we lay Didn't think about The price we'd have to pay No, no, no

We should have counted up the cost But instead we got lost In the second, in the minute In the hour, hey, hey, hey As we lay We forgot about tomorrow As we lay Oh no, oh no, no My love why can't you see How loving you is killing me I can't think of no one else Baby, baby I can't take it no more

You see I can't be in your life You gotta go home to you wife Oh it's morning
