Kelly Price, At Least

Oh, hmm oh yeah, hmm, hmm, hmm I'm on my way back to Atlanta

About to start a new life

Cause' I can't take it here

It seems like the more we fight

The more pressure

I'm in this lonely house

Sitting high up on a hill

Pressin' the buttons on the control

Flipping through channels on T.V.

Wondering when you're coming home

And take care of family

At least you can call and say I'm busy

At least you can say I'm running late

At least you can give some kind of notice

Let somebody know that you're okay

At least you can take some time to phone

At least you can just one day stay home

At least you can take me out to eat

If you love me, you would've done those things

You won't miss me til' I'm gone

Impossible to drink from a well that's gone dry, yeah

And every night you come in singing the same old song

How could you do me wrong?

When you know it ain't right

Pressing the buttons on the control

Flipping through channels on T.V.

Wondering when you're coming home

And take care of family

At least you can call and say I'm busy

At least you can say I'm running late

At least you can give some kind of notice

Let somebody know that you're okay

At least you can take some time to phone

At least you can just one day stay home

At least you can take me out to eat

If you love me would've done those things

Take in a movie show, a carnival

A place to go, we can be alone

But instead I'm staring at these matching walls

The weekends spent, a compliment

Flowers sent would've kept me at home

But now instead I'm packing my bags and I'm gone

At least you can call and say I'm busy

At least you can say I'm running late

At least you can give some kind of notice

Let somebody know that you're okay

At least you can take some time to phone

At least you can just one day stay home

At least you can take me out to eat

If you love me you would've done those things

All I wanted was a smile

For you to stay a little while

It's too late for it

Cause' you forgot the little things, whoa, oh

At least you can take some time to phone

At least you can just one day stay home

At least you can take me out to eat

If you love me you would've done those things

At least you can call and say I'm busy

At least you can say I'm running late

At least you can give some kind of notice

Let somebody know that you're okay

At least you can take some time to phone

At least you can just one day stay home At least you can take me out to eat If you love me you would've done those things (repeat until fade)
