You give good love
A real good love
Baby I can't believe
You are my destiny

You give good love
A real good love
Baby I can't believe
You are my destiny

Have I told you lately?
That I am grateful of my sweet baby
You're everything a woman could want
No maybes cause I can't keep it inside
Keep giving, giving me good love yeah

You give good love

Baby I can't believe
You are my destiny

You give good love

Never thought one moment
That we're together could be so happy
The kind of love that's only in dreams
Don't wanna wake up if I lose your touch
Keep giving, giving me good love yeah
