

Kelly Price, Love Sets You Free

(feat. Aaron Hall)

[Aaron]

When peeps give you love
There's nothing in this world that can set u free
Yeah, feel me, yo G hit me

Here I am, all alone
Can't let them get the best of me
(Gotta let you know, love sets you free)
And these walls closing in
Closing in slowly
But ain't no way they can hold me down
I won't allow it
Cause I believe, I believe that love yeah, yeah
Love sets you free
You know it will take you higher, oh yeah
If you believe
[KP to the bridge]

[Kelly Price]

Do you know?
What it's like when shackles are on your feet?
You're facing a hurricane
One more chapter in your journey
(Your journey)
Break the darkness in my life like sunshine
Now I believe, now I believe that love

[Kelly & Aaron]

Love sets you free
(Sets you free)
You know it's gonna take you higher
If you just believe
(You just believe)
Believe that love will set you free
I know it's gonna take you higher, oh
(Higher)
Just believe
You just believe
And you will receive

[Kelly]

I opened up with my hear
There was no doubt
That hatred pulls you in
And love pulls you out
If you believe in faith you will never fall
Love will take you higher than anyone

[Kelly & Aaron]

Love sets you free
(Love will set you free, oh)
It's gonna take you higher
(It's gonna take you higher)
Just believe
(I do believe, all you gotta do is believe)
Love sets you free
(Love will set you free)
If you just believe
Take you higher
Just believe
(I do believe, just believe it)
I do believe it

[Aaron & Kelly]
Only love can set you free
Let it be, everything you need
A little faith, charity
If you just believe
Open up let it in
If you change everything will be
Love is blind love is sweet
If you only trust in me
Only love can set you free
Let it be, everything you need
A little faith, charity
If you just believe
Open up let it in
If you change everything will be
Love is blind love is sweet
If you only trust in me
Just believe, love will set you free
