

Kelly Price, Mary's Song

Before time my life was chosen for this miracle performed, that through me would come a baby who would one day be my Lord.
But right now he's just a baby and the world is not so sure, cause while some bow down to worship there are some who laugh and scorn.
But there's a will and there's a purpose that I know He must fulfill and the reason why you chose me very soon will be revealed.
But for now can I just hold Him and keep him in my arms and for now can I just hold Him and keep Him safe from Lord, I'll give Him back to you Little ordinary Mary little Baby Jesus boy He's divine in all your planning but for me he's pride and joy. but in Him there is a story that the prophets have foretold, there is honor, there is glory there's redemption for us all.
Can't even think about Him crucified.
Can't even think that He was born to die.
Innocent baby my heart says why?
Cause he's just a little child.
