

Kelly Willis, Take It All Out On You

You better look out you're gonna get it I'm gettin' worried for you
You got no idea what you're gettin' into
I've been alone for all these years I know you've been hurting
This world can be hard on a boy like you
I know I know what you've been through
That ain't no reason to keep you feeling blue

Oh why this burning inside me searchin' for someone to satisfy me
So much love what am I gonna do I'll take it all out on you

It doesn't matter what's the matter you do what you gotta do
If it comes down to you need me and honey I need you
Oh let me tell you darlin' my love is true

Oh why this burning inside me...

[guitar]

Oh why this burning inside me...

Oh why this burning inside me...

I'll take it all out on you yeah I'll take it all out on you
