

Kelly Willis, Whatever Way The Wind Blows

Well from now on I&#039;m gonna do what&#039;s right
Been thinking this over for many long nights
And on this decision I&#039;m gonna follow through
Whatever way the wind blows I&#039;ll be round I&#039;ll be round for you

Now the whole round world has gone thoroughly mad
It&#039;s so hard trusting in anything said
And a sense of doubt is the only thing that&#039;s true
Whatever way the wind blows I&#039;ll be round I&#039;ll be round for you

Whatever winds of change go tearin&#039; cross this world
I&#039;m always gonna be beside you I&#039;m your girl

Well from now on I&#039;m gonna do what&#039;s right...

Whatever winds of change go tearin&#039; cross this world
I&#039;m always gonna be beside you I&#039;m your girl

Now the whole round world has gone thoroughly mad...
I said whatever way the wind blows I&#039;ll be round I&#039;ll be round for you
