

Kelly Willis, Whatever Way The Wind Blows

Well from now on I'm gonna do what's right
Been thinking this over for many long nights
And on this decision I'm gonna follow through
Whatever way the wind blows I'll be round I'll be round for you

Now the whole round world has gone thoroughly mad
It's so hard trusting in anything said
And a sense of doubt is the only thing that's true
Whatever way the wind blows I'll be round I'll be round for you

Whatever winds of change go tearin' cross this world
I'm always gonna be beside you I'm your girl

Well from now on I'm gonna do what's right...

[guitar]

Whatever winds of change go tearin' cross this world
I'm always gonna be beside you I'm your girl

Now the whole round world has gone thoroughly mad...
I said whatever way the wind blows I'll be round I'll be round for you
