Kem, This Place

There's a fountain of hope Living water for each of us There are rivers of dreams Flowin' through the heartache of this place There are children that flower the trees There are voices of people who need This place (adlib) There's sorrow and sadness here But there's heaven and sunshine too The spirit of peace moves free and clear Making way for laughter here There are children that flower the trees There are voices of people who believe In this place They live and breathe In this place yeah (adlib) There are children that flower the trees There are voices of people who need This place They wanna be in this place yeah They live and breathe in this place This place (adlib out)
