

Ken Andrews, In Your Way

I got up, then I fell back again.
They said I would never get to sleep again.
I said
World, why you gotta go away?
But I said
World, why you gonna fade away?

Satellite, with your lens focused on
Everything, and anyone is in your way.
I'm in your way.

Sleeping sound, breathing from my mouth again.
Warning sounds are never gonna make it end.
But I said
World, why you gotta make me pay?
And I said
World, why you gonna fade away?

Satellite, with your lens focused on
Everything, and anyone is in your way.
I'm in your way.

Gonna break you down
Fade away
Gonna break you down
Make you pay

Satellite, with your lens focused on
Everything, and anyone is in your way.
I'm in your way.
