

Kendall Payne, Johnny

Johnny shot to the moon yeah
It's on the nightly news yeah
Theres nothing I can do oh
Johnny shot to the moon yeah oh
Johnny's got Johnny's got Johnny's got
Something to say
Johnny's not Johnny's not
He's not coming down today
Johnny thought Johnny thought
Things would always be the same
Oh no, no, no things can't always be the same
Johnny shot through the roof yeah
No one can get through yeah
Come and see the proof oh
That Johnny shot through the roof whoah oh
Johnny's got Johnny's got Johnny's got
Something to say
Johnny's not Johnny's not
He's not coming down today
Johnny thought Johnny thought
Things would always be the same
Oh no, no, no things cant always be the same
When you wake up in a war
Torn between your heart and head
Who will win who be defeated?
Johnny I quit keeping score
Now there's no-one here to blame
No-one left to leave you cheated
Johnny shot to the moon
Yes, it's nothing new
It's sad to say but it's true
That Johnny shot to the moon
Johnny's got Johnny's got Johnny's got
Something to say
Johnny's not Johnny's not
He's not coming down today
Johnny thought Johnny thought
Things would always be the same
Oh no, no, no things can't always be the same
Things can't always be the same
Things can't always be the same
