

Kendrick Lamar, Die Hard (ft. Blxst & Amanda Reifer)

I pop the pain away
I slide the pain away
I pop the pain away
I slide the pain away

I hope I'm not too late to set my demon straight
I know I made you wait
But how much could you take?
I hope you see the God in me
I hope you could see

Do you love me?
Do you trust me?
Can I trust you?
Don't judge me
I'm a diehard
If it gets ugly
Too passionate, it gets ugly
I wonder when I lost my way
Been waitin' on your call all day
Corner right now

I hope I'm not too late to set my demon straight
I know I made you
But how much could you take?
I hope you see the God in me
I hope you could see

I got some regrets
But my past won't keep me from my best
Some of my mistakes felt like life or death
I wanna see the family stronger
I wanna see the money longer
You know that I'd die for you
I get emotional about life
The lost ones keepin' me up at night
The world be reminding me its danger
I still risk it all for a stranger
If I told you who I am, would you use it against me?
Right or wrong, no stone, just love to send me

I hope I'm not too late to set my demon straight
I know I made you
But how much could you take?
I hope you see the God in me
I hope you could see

Baby, make me pray for London, yeah
'Cause if I won it all without you involved
I guess it's all for nothin'
