

Kenickie, Brighter Shade Of Blue

As if i've ever been wrong,
In my whole life,
As if i've ever been known,
To tell you lies.

I know you want me with you now,
You know i can't be with you now,
Cos you let me down.

Then I'll come back to you,
A brighter shade of blue.

From the start i was warned,
What it would be like,
It didn't stop me at all,
I wouldn't fight it.

And now I cannot be without,
You know I want you with me now,
Someone let me down.

I'll come back to you,
A brighter shade of blue.

When we did it at home,
Oh, things were different,
We did it out in the cold,
And no one listened.

The things we did to see it out,
It makes me laugh it makes me proud,
Never let me down.

I'll come back to you,
A brighter shade of blue.

People think we do wrong,
Well they know nothing,
When they they'll know,
We'll show them all something.

I never shadowed you with doubt,
You're sense of humour wears me out,
But that's allowed.

We'll step out into,
A brighter shade of blue.

We step into,
A brighter shade of blue.
