

Kenna, Man Fading

i need to be brilliant, electric i wanted to be natural this life should be fantastic lets start a revolution a true revolution
i havnt felt the same
since i arrived i haven't slept a wink

i'm just a man fading
i've been a little bit jaded everybody wants to get on the neon lights have got it all i'm living out sensation
walk inside invasions
nobody wants to really know
the neon lights...

i need to be elected, perfected needs beyond the blue feel the satisfaction i want to be a light source a blaring night force

and this is how it starts before we lose it all i know we're not coming God knows when i'm gone

i'm living a sensation
nobody really wants to know
the neon lights have got it all
the neon lights...

well, this is how it starts
i know when i'm coming
God knows when i'm gone

the neon lights...
