

Kenna, Out Of Control (State Of Emotion)

all this pressure is building up and there's a chance its gonna explode i cant promise how, when or where b' i can tell you it'll happen for sure this crazy world that's spinnin fast round and round and round we go just keep your eyes on me now love never stray and never let go cuz shit is out of control its out of control

and i can't care what is happening
no getting frustrated
i wanna be sedated
so i don't care love come with me yeah its doin my head in you're doin my head in
and i can't change
my state of emotion

bang bang boom energy in the air and the universe speakin to me telling me, tell you to get closer love, lay it on me it's the same old feelin that i've been holding in its a feelin thats got a hold i need your love anarchy so let me in and never let go!

its insane how this feels
its hotter and i'm losing my mind
i feel the pressure and its building up inside
and its ready to blow!!!
