

Kenna, Sirens

I live for my independence
Live for my beliefs, yeah
I live with my intentions
Careful falling for me

I've come to a new conclusion
On the folly in love and youth yeah
I've made my decision
Call it policy or truth

I say young love will only break your heart,
I say nothings going to change me

Here she comes with hunger; here she comes with desire,
Here she comes to pull me under burning inside

Well I've come to a new conclusion
In the folly of love and youth,
Yeah I've made my decision
Call it policy or truth here she comes

Here she comes--paradise
(when will the siren come)
Here she comes here she comes paradise
