

Kenny Chesney, Being Drunk Is A Lot Like Lovin'

i drank till i stumbled i drank till i fell... when the drunk part was over
it hurt me like hell
now i know about drinkin so i know one things true, being drunks a lot like lovin you...

cause i loved till i stumbled i loved till i fell when the lovin was over
it hurt me like hell
now i know what a taste of the wrong love can do bein drunks a lot like lovin you....

and ive woke some mornings and sworn off the drink at that i've done reasonably well I think but i havent done well swearin off you and me at that i've failed miserably

i felt the hangover of lovin all night ive sat at the bar all alone in a fight... ive bottled up feelings and poured them out too...

and ive woken some mornings and sworn off the drink
at that i've done reasonably well I think but i havnt done well swearin off you and me
at that i've failed miserably

i drank till i sumbled, i loved till i fell.. when the drunk part was over love hurt me like hell, now i know about drinkin so i know one things true..
bein drunks a lot like lovin you now i know what a taste of the wrong love can do sometimes i..still get drunk.. lovin you.
