

Kenny Chesney, Being Drunk's A Lot Like Loving

I drank till I Stumbled

I drank till i fell

When The drunk part was over it hurt me like hell now i know about drinkin so i know one things true bein drunk's a lot like lovin you

Cause I loved till i stumbled

I loved till I fell

When the When the lovin was over it hurt me like hell I know what a taste of the wrong love can do being drunk's a lot like lovin you

And I've woke up some mornings a sworn off the drink at that ive done reasonably well I think but i havent done well swearin off you and me and that ive failed miserably

Well ive felt the hangover of lovin all night ive sat at the bar all alone in a fight I've bottled up feelings and poured 'em out to

Being drunk's a lot like lovin you

And I've woke up some mornings a sworn off the drink at that ive done reasonably well I think but i havent done well swearin off you and me and that ive failed miserably

I've drank till i stumbled

I love till i fell

When the drunk part was over love hurt me like hell now i know about drinkin so i know one things true being drunk's a lot like lovin you

Well i know what a taste of the wrong love can do sometimes i still get drunk lovin you
