Kenny Chesney, High And Dry

last night I think I put that homefire out, I came in late and lit to a cold dark house. I guess she thinks she's got me good this time She took all of hers and most of mine.

She left me High but I ain't dry I've got beer and tears to cry Well I should be feeling low Up that creek that we all know Yeah that woman left me high but I ain't dry

Say hey bartender fill 'er up again let's just keep me in the shape i'm in and if I can't get her memory to drown uh oh Well I'll take it for a swim all over town

She left me high but I ain't dry I've got beer and tears to cry Well I should be feeling low up that creek that we all know yeah that woman left me high but I ain't dry

Well, I should be feeling low up that creek that we all know yeah that woman left me high but I ain't dry
