

Kenny Loggins, Traveling Blues

If you ever get the traveling blues
And need a place to rest your shoes
There's someone here to welcome the new
I'd be so happy to know that you're alive

If knowing this should make you feel low
And you're feeling the need for someone to know
I love to hear your welcome hello
I'd be so happy to know that you're alive

There's so many sights
Those bright city lights
Will help you try to find your way
It's a big, big world
And you're a big, big girl
So hurry up and don't be late

But if you ever want to come on home
There's no need in you being alone
All you've got to do is phone
I'd be so happy to know that you're alive

Mmmm, there's so many sights
Those bright city lights
Will help try to find your way
It's a big, big world
And you're a big, big girl
So hurry up and don't be late

But if you ever want to come on home
There's no need in you being alone
All you've got to do is phone
I'd be so happy to know that you're alive

I'd be so happy to know that you're alive
So happy to know that you're alive
