

Kenny Price, Lady's Leavin'

Did you ever sleep up behind a billboard sign
On the outskirts of your hometown for no good reason
Did you ever keep a picture in your back pocket
Of a lady who let you down just cause it was pleasin'
Did you ever stand out in the pouring rain on the sunny day
Watch a big 7-40-7 flyin' your whole world away
Did you ever love a woman who broke your heart every day of her life
The lady's leavin' Lord I'm grievin' so lowdown feelin' the lady's leavin'
[strings]
Did you ever get drunk in a smoky bar
And crawl out on your knees with your head a reelin'
Did you ever wake up in a cheap hotel
With a body that you tried to please but you had no feelin's
Did you ever stand out...
So lowdown feelin' the lady's leavin'
