

Kenny Price, Wasting My Time

Wasting my time again asking you to stop seeing him
I've told you goodbye for the last time but I'm wasting my time again
This thing that you're doing's a sin how could you leave me for him
Somehow I wished we've been nothing but friends there I go wasting my time again
But time means nothing to me when I'm lonely
It takes time to heal when you've lost your one and only Wasting my time what's new the story of my life with you
I could talk till I'm blue in the face but then I'll just be wasting my time again
My time again my time again
