

Kenny, Red Headed Lady

Everybody there on the dance hall floor had somebody

And honey I couldn't take any more
Then I saw you baby
red headed lady

You were like a flame in a dying fire
'Cos when you move you turn me on

Take me higher and higher

You saved me
I love you red headed lady.

'Cos you were like a light on a stormy sea
Shining on through the waves that were drowning me
You saved me
I love you red headed lady

You burn me with your eyes
you tantalise me girl
You know you do ahh girl I'll burn my fingers
If I lay a hand on you
You were like a flame in a dying fire

...
You burn me with your eyes
you tantalise me
Yes you were like a light on a stormy sea

You were like a flame in a dying fire

...
Yes you were like a light on a stormy sea
