

Kenny Rogers, If I Could Change Your Mind

I've found a great deal of satisfaction
Thinking that you think of me
I've found each day
Bring a new sunshine
There is no tomorrow
For us to borrow
Why can't you find
What you are needing in me
If I could only change your mind.

I found no effort at all
In showing what I'm feeling you
I find it hard each day just knowing
There's no tomorrow for us to borrow why won't you find
What you are needing in me
If I could only change your mind...
