

Kenny Rogers, What I Learned from Loving You

WHAT I LEARNED FROM LOVING YOU

(Russell Smith - James H. Brown)

'82 WB Music

Sometimes I still think of you
Love that's gone by and the things I didn't do
Time heals hearts so they all say
Passing of years slowly pulls the pain away
There's still a little tenderness left in everything I do
It's what I learned from loving you
Well I had too much to learn to hold on to someone like you
And it took losing you to make me see the woman you needed me to be
Times have changed I have changed too
Even my eyes turned a deeper shade of blue
Guess it's all that crying they went through
It's what I learned from lovin' you
Well I had too much to learn...
I don't cry though we're apart
And someday soon someone else will need this heart
And the next time I'm gonna know when a love is true
It's what I learned from loving you
It's what I learned from lovin' you
It's what I learned from lovin' you
It's what I learned from lovin' you
