Kenny Wayne Shepherd, Somehow, Somewhere

Kenny Wayne Shepard

Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

Now girl, I see you in my dreams It happens every day and night now You got me going to extremes Don't seem to care what's wrong or right now I'll make ya mine Someday Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

You say I'm really not your kind I know I look a little rough now If I could give you everything, girl Would it ever be enough now I'll make you mine someday Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

It makes me wonder what's goin' on baby, when the night rolls in

It something happens that feels so strong and and I just can't pretend, oh yeah

~ SOLO ~

Oh don't you wonder what's, goin' on baby When the night rolls in It's something happens that,feels so strong and And it will happen again So, you can turn and walk away,

But I know you would regret it, If I ever had my way, yeah, Do you think you could forget it, It's gonna happen someday, Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

I wanna have you someday, Somehow, Somewhere, Someway

I'll make you mine someday Somehow, Somewhere, Someway
