Well, my mind's been Going through them changes I feel like I could go out And commit a crime Everytime you see me going somewhere I feel like I'm going out of my mind My babe, she left me just the other day We was having so much fun Yeah, my baby, she stepped out on me And that's the reason we had to part Yeah, my mind's been Going through them changes I think I'm going out of my mind Everytime I see you going out somewhere I feel like I could go out And commit a crime She had me runnin'

She had me hidin' She had me runnin', runnin', runnin' Hidin'...cryin' She had me runnin' She had me cryin' She had me runnin', runnin', runnin' runnin'...cryin' Well, my mind's been Going through them changes I feel like I could go out And commit a crime Everytime I see you going somewhere I feel like I'm losin' my mind My babe, she left me just the other day We were having so much fun Yeah, my baby, she ran out on me And that's the reason we had to part
