

Kent, If You Were Here

Sleep
I don't need to sleep
I hide my fist behind me
Dream
I don't sleep I dream
My conscience lays beside me

If you were here
If you were here
If I was there
If you were here
Today, this day
If you were here
If you were here
If I was there
If you were here
Today, this day

Speak
I don't need to speak
You're satisfied with silence
Scream
I won't speak I scream
My conscience walked behind me

CHORUS

Today, This day, Today

Sleep
And all my energy
I waste on dreams of silence

CHORUS
