

Kent, The One To Blame

What a dream i had tonight you were all dressed up in blue It almost felt like we were tame now i'm so sorry that i led you to believe that it was you who made us fall apart that it was you who put this sadness in my heart when I should be the one to blame

What a dream it was this time we were tangled up in blue tonight the last touch is good bye 'cause i'm so sorry that I lead you to believe that it was you who put this pain inside of me who made me chain inside and see that i should be the one to blame you who made us fall apart you who put this sadness in my heart you should be the one to blame
