

Keren Ann, For You And I

Somewhere late at night
The merman called the breeze
Found an out of sight
And simply watched at ease
The sea was cold as ice
And lonely as it seems
The wind came to my eyes
And woke me from a dream

And it's over now for you and I
For you and I
It's over now for you and I
For you and I

Out there in the sand
I waited for the dawn
To bring me thoughts from other lands
And then you came along

And it's over now for you and I
For you and I
It's over now for you and I
For you and I

Somewhere late at night
The merman called the breeze
Found an out of sight
And simply watched at ease
