

Keri Hilson, Ready to Fall

Keri:

I can't stop my hands from touching you
I can't stop my lips from kissing you
I can't stop my arms from holding you
I can't stop my body from needing you
Baby just take it all, oo baby just take it all
I'm ready to fall, but what about you?

Ne-yo:

I can't stop my eyes from seeing you
Even when your not within my view
Hands upon my watch refuse to move
Every moment that we share is like new Ooh baby just give it all, Ooh baby just give it all
I'm ready to fall, but what about you?

Keri:

And whatever the road you want me to travel baby I'll ride wherever you ride
My seatbelts on now you can go faster
I wanna go faster baby
Ooh just take it all
Oohh baby just give it all
I'm ready to fall, but what about you?

Ne-yo:

Pleasure and the pain is what we do
Make it hurt so good just loving you
Emotionally intertwined as two
Gravity take us wherever aslong as we're together
Baby give it all, take it as I give it all
I'm ready to fall, so ready, so ready baby

Keri:

I can't stop my hands from touching you
I can't my lips from kissing you
I can't stop my arms from holding you
I can't stop my body from needing you
Baby just take it all, Ooh baby just take it all
I'm ready to fall, but what about you?
