

Kerli, Heal

I looked at you and all I saw
Was colors oh so beautiful
From blue to green for rainy days
And pinks and reds for being okay
They made you you, so incomplete
So naked, small, but oh so sweet

See where it's going, can I be knowing
That you will not be here, it's all become so clear
And I'll keep walking, I'll keep on wondering
If what we have was real, if i will ever

Heal..
Heaaal..
Heal..
Heaaal...
Heal..

I looked at you and all I saw
Was colors oh so beautiful
From blue to green for rainy days
And pinks and reds for being okay
They made you you, so incomplete
So naked, small, but oh so sweet
But oh so sweet
It made you you, it made you you...
