

Kerli, When Nobody Loves You

Silence is golden, you will see, you will see
Your diamond shield is broken, you are free, you are free
Burnin' down to the ground
Just wanna create no sound
Their image all around
I am too rise again

If no one can hurt you
Then nobody loves you
If no one can break you
Then nobody loves you
If no one can change you
Then nobody can save you
If nobody loves you
Then I do

***not sure***, Set you free, Set you free
The only constant things are chained, you will see, you will see
Burnin' down to the ground
Just wanna create no sound
Their image all around
I am too rise again

If no one can hurt you
Then nobody loves you
If no one can break you
Then nobody loves you
If no one can change you
And no one can save you
If nobody loves you
I do
